UNIVERSITY OF MYSORE

Guidelines for Allotment of Seats for Admission to Postgraduate Degree Programs 2026-27

1. Calendar of Events

The admission process (filing of applications, last date for filing of applications, announcement of Candidates Selection list under different rounds of allotment, last date for admission of candidates in each round, etc.,) shall be followed as per the Admission Calendar of Events for all postgraduate programs.

2. Scrutiny of Applications

2.1 The total marks in all the semesters scored by the candidate in the cognate subject in the qualifying examination is reduced to 50%.

2.2 The applications shall be scrutinized and grouped as follows:

- (a) Applicants possessing qualifying degree from University of Mysore (excluding Foreign Nationals).
- (b) Applicants from other Universities within Karnataka.
- (c) Applicants from Universities outside Karnataka.

2.3 The entrance marks is reduced to 50% in cases where the test is conducted for 100 marks. Where the entrance test is for 50 marks, the marks obtained in the test shall be retained as it is.

2.4 The Overall Score of the candidate is the sum of the scores obtained in section 2.1 and the marks obtained in the entrance exam (2.3).

2.5. In case of Programs where entrance exam was not conducted the Overall Score will be same as the score in the qualifying examination (as per the eligibility criteria of the program)

NOTE: For M.Ed. and M.P.Ed., the marks obtained by candidates in B.Ed. and B.P.Ed. shall be considered for calculation of percentage in qualifying examination and not marks of basic degree of 3 / 4 years duration.

3. Preparation of the Consolidated List

3.1 Separate consolidated merit lists of candidates as detailed hereunder shall be prepared in the descending order of overall score irrespective of the category as per proforma provided.

- a) Candidates possessing the qualifying degree from the University of Mysore (Annexure-I).
- b) Candidates from other universities within Karnataka (Annexure-II).
- c) Candidates from other universities outside Karnataka (Annexure-III).

3.2 When there is a tie in the overall score, it shall be resolved by giving weightage to the candidates in the following order of preference:

- a) Percentage of marks obtained in cognate subject(s).
- b) Percentage of marks obtained in non-cognate subjects.
- c) Percentage of aggregate marks (including the marks secured in languages) in the qualifying examination.

- d) Percentage of marks secured in cognate subject(s) in the final year of the qualifying examination.
- e) Percentage of marks secured in non-cognate subjects in the final year of the qualifying examination.
- f) Percentage of marks (including the marks secured in languages) in the final year of the qualifying examination.

The marks secured by the candidate in all the three years of qualifying examination should be considered for calculating the percentage of marks at item no. (a), (b) and (c).

4. Preparation of the Selection List - Scheme A

4.1 General Merit seats shall be allotted first. While doing so, candidates in the consolidated merit list should be considered irrespective of the category /claim of reservation.

5. Preparation of List for the Casual Round

5.1 All candidates who have not been allotted a seat in the first round of allotment are automatically considered for allotment of seats during the casual round of allotment.

5.2 The vacancies available in each category shall be put on the Notice Board (and online) after the last date for admission of candidates.

5.3 Vacant Seats in University of Mysore quota:

After considering all the candidates in the list in respective categories, vacant seats (if any) in categories I, IIA, IIB, IIIA and IIIB shall be shifted to General Merit category.

- Vacant seats in category SC/ST are interchangeable. They cannot be transferred to any other category.
- Such vacant SC/ST seats can be given to SC/ST students from other universities within Karnataka.

(Section 9.4 of the Regulation governing the conduct of Entrance Test and admission to P.G. Degree / Diploma Programs approved by Government vide letter No.ED.25/GMS/2000, dated 4.9.2000.)

- Vacant seats can be transferred to Other Universities within Karnataka quota, and then to Other Universities Outside Karnataka quota.

5.4 Vacant seats from Kalyana Karnataka category should be transferred to General Merit category.

5.5 Vacant Seats in Other University Categories quota:

- Vacant seats in Other Universities within Karnataka quota and Outside Karnataka quota cannot be shifted to University of Mysore quota.
- Such vacancies are interchangeable only between these two categories.

5.6 In case there are no eligible applicants available in ‘Mysore University’ category, such seats shall be transferred to Other Universities within Karnataka quota and subsequently to Other Universities outside Karnataka quota.
